Rules and regulations (supplemented if necessary by the general regulations of French national amateur events)

- All rounds played from back tees
- Total number of players for Coupe Patrick Frayssineau is 132 including :
  - 106 players selected firstly by taking into account the ranking of the top 2500 players at WAGR, then by the order of the French national amateur ranking, then by handicap (with a limit of 4,4 for this last criterion), all this being at the closing date of candidacy
  - 7 wild cards chosen by Fontainebleau GC
  - 3 wild cards chosen by the Technical Direction of the French Golf Union
  - 3 wild cards chosen by the "Paris Ile de France" golf league
  - 13 slots reserved for "licences Or under 16" who do not enter the field via their ranking in WAGR or the French national amateur ranking or their handicap. Those slots will be allocated using the same criteria as the official list of the 106, except for the handicap which could be superior to 4,4.
- French candidates should have paid the "federal play dues" and be up to date in the payment they owe for various French Grand Prix.
- The competition is totally "no smoking".

- A medical certificate of ability to play golf in competition must be provided by all candidates, whether affiliated or not to the French Golf Union, at the time of inscription.

Players should observe the attire regulation effective at Fontainebleau Golf Club (no jeans, no jogging or legging, tailored only shorts, no tee shirt and no non collar shirts. Soft spikes only shoes. And no mobile phone in the club house or on the course).
